MEMORANDUM FOR: CHIEF, EE-I

SUBJECT: EE-I Daily Progress Report
Friday, 28 December 1951

1. BGFIEND. Arrangements have been completed to move Ibrahim Kelmendi and Adam Selimi in early January to this country for enrollment in the Boulder phase of the ELOPE program. These Albanians, both members of the BK party, have been earmarked for the ELOPE program for the past six months and were moved from Greece to the Guard Company in Germany in mid-summer.

2. JBEDICT. Reports have been received from Athens, evaluation B-2, (military) that an order has been signed relieving Brig. Gen. Nikolpoulos as Director of Greek Intelligence Service. Also a further confirmation of the retirement order given to Maj. Gen. Dovas. Another report, evaluated B-2, further substantiates reports of maneuvers of Gen. Tsakalokas to oust Gen. Kitrilakis as Inspector Gen. of Greek Army.

Of further interest is the rumor of the pending appointment of Col. Diamondopoulos as the next Greek Military Attache in Washington. Col. Diamondopoulos was formerly rumored as a possible successor to Gen. Nikolpoulos. There is, also, belief that the Col., a pro-British officer, is in the pay of the British Services.

3. BGCONVOY. No report.

4. QKBROIL. No report.
